I. Read the text: Buried Treasure

(an old tale)

An old peasant* had a large garden with many fruit trees. He was also the father of three strong, but lazy sons. They helped him very little in his work. Every morning before the sun was hot the peasant began to work in the garden. And every afternoon he had a rest in the garden under a tree. There came a time when the peasant could no longer work among his trees, because he was very, very old.

One day his three sons gathered in his room to hear the reading of the will*.

"I leave to my sons my garden and the treasure which lies buried there.

The three sons looked at one another. "Treasure!" they exclaimed. "Treasure buried in the garden! If we hire* others to dig there, they may steal our treasure from us. We must work in the garden until we find it."

So the sons divided the garden into three parts and began to work harder than ever before. They dug from one end of the garden to the other end, but they could not find the treasure.

That year, however, the fruit trees brought so much fruit, that when the three sons sold the fruit they got much money. It seemed to be a fortune*.

When they divided the money, one of them said, "Indeed, our digging has brought us a treasure. Our father was very wise."

And so each year their digging brought them a treasure.

The Treasure

Simon Dalton sat unhappily at the kitchen table with his parents. It was the middle of August and it was very hot. They all wanted to go on holiday but they just didn't have enough money. Simon finished his breakfast and went into the garden. Buster, his huge dog, followed him joyfully. Simon lay on the grass. He felt bored. He looked around the garden looking for something to do. Suddenly, he had an idea. "Come on, Buster! Let's plant some trees!" Simon took a spade (лопата) and started digging.

Suddenly, his spade hit something hard. It was the top of a small wooden box. He kept digging until he could pull the box out. It took him a long time. He tried to open it but it was locked, so he broke it with his spade. When he opened the box he could not believe his eyes. The chest was full of ancient coins. "Mum! Dad!" he shouted loudly. "Come and see! It looks like treasure!" "It is," his dad said. "It's gold!"

The Daltons took the treasure to the local museum and they were delighted to receive a reward (вознаграждение). Simon was in all the newspapers and they even interviewed him on TV. A week later, Simon was on a beautiful beach in Florida, one of the warmest states of their country. He enjoyed swimming and basking in the sun. A The problem of driving

B The second capital

C Traffic in the city

D Business centre

E Cultural centre

F Educational centre

1. Everyone knows something about New York – the Statue of Liberty, the skyscrapers, the beautiful shops on Fifth Avenue and many theatres of Broadway. This is America's cultural capital and the biggest city with a population of nearly eight million. There are hundreds of things to do and see all the year round.
2. There are five parts in New York: Brooklyn, the Bronx, Manhattan, Queens and Richmond. Only one of them, the Bronx, is not on an island. Manhattan, the smallest island in New York, is the real centre of the city. When people say 'New York City' they usually mean Manhattan. Most of the interesting shops, buildings and museums are here, and Manhattan is the scene of New York's busy night life.
3. Wall Street in Manhattan is the financial heart of the USA and the most important banking centre in the world. It is a street of skyscrapers. Five million people work here every day.
4. Like every big city, New York has its own traffic system. Traffic jams can be terrible, and it's usually quicker to go by subway. It goes to almost every corner of Manhattan. But be careful at night, it's better not to go by subway. There are more than 30000 taxis in New York. They are easy to see, because they are bright yellow.
5. If you really have to drive in New York, remember that nearly all the east-west streets and most of the north-south streets are one way only. This can be difficult for the visitor who doesn't know his way. Try to get a map that shows the directions of the traffic, and good luck!
